9 Sharing Your Medical Record
Medical Record Sharing allows your complete GP medical record to be made available to authorised healthcare professionals involved in your care. You will always be asked your permission before anybody looks at your shared medical record. If you don't want to share your GP record tick here: <input type="checkbox"/>
Summary Care Record contains details of your key health information – medications, allergies and adverse reactions. They are accessible to authorised healthcare staff in A&E Departments throughout England. You will always be asked your permission before anybody looks at your Summary Care Record. If you don't want to have a Summary Care Record tick here: <input type="checkbox"/>
The Care.data Programme Collates information about you and the care you receive. It links information from all the different places where you receive care, such as your GP, hospital and community services, to help them provide a full picture of your medical needs and the care you are receiving. This data is made available to NHS Commissioners so that they can design integrated services and is shared with third parties for research purposes. I wish to OPT OUT from my Personal Confidential Data being shared outside my GP practice: <input type="checkbox"/> I wish to OPT OUT from my Personal Confidential Data being shared with third parties: <input type="checkbox"/>

10	Patient Participation Group (PPG)
The Practice is committed to improving the services we provide to our patients. To do this, it is vital that we hear from people about their experiences, views, and ideas for making services better. By expressing your interest, you will be helping us to plan ways of involving patients that suit you. It will also mean we can keep you informed of opportunities to give your views and up to date with developments within the Practice. If you are interested in getting involved in the PPG, please tick yes in the box below and we will contact you with further details.
